End of Course Exam

Students will be taking the Algebra 1 End Of Course Exam (EOC) this school year. The EOC is a summative assessment of all material learned in the class and is 30% of the student’s grade. More information regarding the exam will be shared throughout the school year.

Class Materials

- Binder
- Line paper and graph paper
- At least 5 divider tabs
- Pencils and colored pens
- Clear ruler
- Scientific Calculator

Grades

Attendance

Attendance plays a big role on understanding and retaining the class information and may affect a student’s overall content knowledge and grade. Students’ attendance is crucial as we are on block schedule and the curriculum is advanced. An absent student is responsible for obtaining the information/topic covered during their absence. It is the student’s responsibility to obtain the correct make-up work and submit for a grade.

Expectations and consequences

CLASSROOM EXPECTATIONS

- Be on time to class and in your seat when the bell rings.
- Always be prepared for class with the correct materials.
- Make sure to be in proper uniform
- Begin working on the p.o.d. once you get to your assigned seat.
- Respect the teacher and other classmates.
- Submit assignments on due date.
- Try your best!

INAPPROPRIATE BEHAVIOR

- Talking during a lesson or when others are speaking.
- Using a cell phone, eating, or drinking during class.
- Touching another student or another student's belongings.
- Being disruptive when entering the classroom late or during class.
- Teasing or laughing at other classmates.
- CHEATING (This will result in an automatic zero on the assignment and a consequence.)

Assignment format

Your heading on assignments is to be located on the upper right hand corner of your paper, with the assignment title on the first line.

The heading to look as follows:

Computer and internet access

It is imperative that students have internet access throughout the school year. Students will be given different internet/computer based assignments to be completed for a grade. We will be working with the online programs, i-Ready and Math XL, on a regular basis.
